

Shafira

Assalamu alaikum!

I am Shafira, a person with a passion for growth, self-discovery, and making a beautiful impact in the world (amin!) start from myself. I am 31 years old, September this year (2023). I am always exploring new ideas and perspectives, and I love sharing my insights with others through my Instagram accounts. I teach IGCSE Biology & BM, develop happy websites, and study AI philosophy.

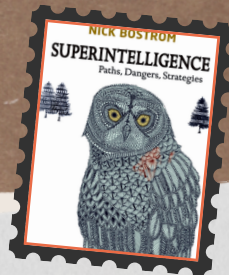

My strength lies in my deep curiosity and open-mindedness. I am always eager to learn and grow, and I believe that there is always something new to discover about ourselves and the world around us. My outlook on life is one of endless beautiful possibilities.

In my free time, I enjoy watching Criminal Minds, ModernFamily, and others, journaling, listen to music, and trying new things. I love traveling and experiencing different cultures. I am also an avid reader and enjoy getting lost in a good book.

My current read

FAMILY

Family is important to me, and I value spending time with my loved ones. I have a close relationship with my parents and siblings, and I hope to find someone who shares my family values.

CAREER

As for my career, I am passionate about making a positive impact in the world. I work in the field of technology and am committed to using my skills to create a better future for all.

RELATIONSHIP

In a relationship, I am loyal and committed where I prefer small knit rather than large group. I have friendships that have spanned across 10 - 15 years until now Alhamdulillah. I also enjoy relationships with my former colleagues and bosses.

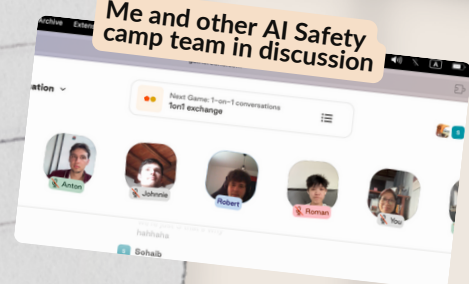

DEALBREAKER

My dealbreaker is a lack of emotional intelligence and personal life vision, and indecisiveness. I believe that strong relationships require emotional connection and take works, and I am not willing to settle for anything less.

If you are a man who shares my vision for a better world and is ready to embark on a journey of growth and self-discovery together, I would love to get to know you. Let's explore the possibilities together.

YOU

In a life partner, I am looking for someone who shares my values and is equally committed to personal growth and making a positive impact in the world. I value intelligence, kindness, and a sense of humor, and I am drawn to someone who is curious, ambitious, and passionate about their own goals and dreams.

While I have many strengths and positive qualities, it is also important to be open and honest about my vulnerabilities and anxieties.

One of the areas where I may struggle is in managing my anxiety. As an INTJ and Enneagram 4w3, I may experience moments of self-doubt and imposter syndrome, which can be challenging to navigate. However, I am also very self-aware and proactive in addressing these issues, and I have developed strategies to help me manage my anxiety and maintain a positive outlook.

After the passing of my mother almost 2 years ago, I also went some time off to recalibrate my life goal, life vision - of before, I believe most of reasons were to make her happier, prouder.

So since then, I have learnt to enjoy more too and explore my other crazy, witty sides (moreeeee to explore/ develop). Another area where I may have some challenges is in balancing my creative pursuits with the demands of daily life. Sometimes, it can be difficult to find the time and energy to pursue my creative projects while also juggling work and other responsibilities

So, it'd be so good to find someone who can complement me in these other ways.

SUMMARY

I'm 148 cm, live in Klang valley, in Sijangkang. I am a freelancer, my working hours are not that long, as I'm freer with my time sometimes, but I do have few projects in the pipeline. I'm hoping to stay close to my dad and foster larger healthy family relationship. But I'm open to new adventures too, if we're keen: career-wise, study-wise, family-wise. I am also open to mutual friends (of me, my friends, or my brother) as that networks serve more comfort in knowing someone new.

NEXT STEP

Thank you for taking the time to read my personal portfolio.

If you feel a connection with me and are interested in getting to know me better, please reach out to my brother, who will act as my chaperone in the first part of the process. I am excited to meet someone who shares similar values, passions, and interests and see where this journey takes us.
